The Journal of International Humanitarian Action is welcoming articles for Q2 of 2016. The deadline for the receipt of papers is 31st January 2016.

The Journal welcomes:

- Research articles providing an original contribution that deal with empirical findings or theoretical developments;

- Commentaries that raise topical issues and reflect on current practices;

- Reports from the field that highlight contemporary challenges from currently encountered in high profile cases as well as contributions that highlight “forgotten” but nevertheless pertinent crises;

- Book reviews

Further information concerning the journal and how to submit a manuscript can be found on the journal’s website: http://www.springer.com/law/international/journal/41018.