The Duncan Black Prize
for Best Paper in Public Choice by a Senior Scholar

$1,000
Sponsored by continuing gifts from the editors of Public Choice

Past winners:
2016: To be announced at the Awards Luncheon of the 2017 Annual Meetings, March 4, 2017.
1990: [Note: The Duncan Black Prize was established in the early 1990s and we are trying to piece together all the awardees and their paper titles.]
The Gordon Tullock Prize
for Best Paper in Public Choice by a Junior Scholar

$1,000
Sponsored by continuing gifts from Springer.

Past winners:
2016: To be announced at the Awards Luncheon of the 2017 Annual Meetings, March 4, 2017.
2005: Jac C. Heckelman, A Spatial Model of U.S. Senate Elections, Public Choice 118(1-2): 87-103