Health Care and EU Law

The aim of the present volume is to explore the consequences of the impact of the EU rules for the internal market (including the proposed Directive on patients' rights) and competition on national health care systems. It will also address how related areas, such as EU public procurement law and WTO law, influence national healthcare organisation and Member State autonomy.

Features
- The book approaches the issue of health care not only from the perspective of patient mobility but also from the angle of competition law, public procurement law and WTO law
- It provides the reader with a comprehensive view of the impact of (European) market law on national health care
- Compulsory reading for everyone who is engaged in issues of health care and EU law

Real Estate Investments in Germany
Transactions and Development

The real estate market in Germany is on the move. Not only are major real estate portfolios changing hands but a considerable number of small portfolios and individual properties are also being developed and sold. Against this backdrop, this publication provides investors and project developers with practical explanations of the legal, tax and economic requirements surrounding real estate investments in Germany.
