Beginning Teaching

Stories from the Classroom

The experiences of the first years of new teachers' professional lives are critical to their decisions about embracing or leaving the teaching profession. This book offers a research-based account of beginning teachers' experiences, told from their own perspectives and often in their own words.

Features
- Evocative narratives on beginning teachers' experiences
- Research-based discussion of beginning teachers
- Insights for teacher educators
- Suggestions for school leaders on how to enhance their support of beginning teachers
- Voices of beginning teaching informing mentors and teacher educators
