1) What is the research novelty that you are presenting in your paper? Please give a short answer with no more than 50 words.

2) What is the context in which your work has taken place? Please give a short answer with no more than 40 words.

3) Why do you think that this journal is the appropriate journal for your publication? Please give a short answer with no more than 40 words.

4) Who of the members of the editorial board, do you think, would be an appropriate reviewer and why? Please give a short answer with no more than 40 words.

5) Is your contribution more on the theoretical or more on the practical side? Please answer with no more than 30 words.

6) What case study(ies) have you considered and why did you choose it (them)? Please answer with no more than 40 words.

7) Have you published already related results? If so, please state in which respect(s) this paper exceeds previous work (with no more than 40 words).

Dear Author/s,

please submit answers to all questions with submission of your paper, as stated at the end of each question. It is mandatory for submission.

Thanks a lot!

Best regards,

Sabine Glesner Sabine Kathke
Editor-in-Chief Publishing Editor