Journal Metrics

The Indian Journal of International Law, the official journal of the Indian Society of International Law, has been publishing quarterly issues since 1960 and is a leading journal of international law from South Asia. Under the editorship of Professor Chimni, the journal has published contributions from stalwarts such as Prof. P. Sreenivasa Rao, Prof. Upendra Baxi, Judge Helmut Tuerk, Prof. Surya P. Subedi, Prof. Brigit Toebes, Prof. Peter Hilpold, to name a few. The journal solicits for consideration research articles, notes, and case comments that employ empirical, theoretical, policy-oriented or practice-oriented approaches to any issue of international law.
